

Product Madness, London Corking Acoustics

Featured Product(s):
Organics

Partner(s):
Maris

Since being acquired by Australian company Aristocrat in 2012, online casino gaming company Product Madness has gone from strength-to-strength. This growth resulted in the need for bigger, better offices for the firm to accommodate and attract top-level talent.

Maris was responsible for the fitout, which featured collaboration spaces and areas to encourage flexible working in abundance.

Amongst the vast array of textures and materials, Creatif supplied and installed a selection of Organics - our decorative, acoustic cork tiles.

As well as adding to the office's natural aesthetic, the tiles, as a Class D sound absorber, effectively remove unwanted noise from the office.
